

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Oct. 5, 2022

~ Florida Department of Revenue Announces Corporate Income Tax Due Date Extension.~

Tallahassee, Fla.- Today, Florida Department of Revenue Executive Director Jim Zingale announced extended due dates for corporate income tax filers impacted by Hurricane Ian following the recent declaration from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Eligible taxpayers that file Florida corporate income tax returns, as well as Florida corporate income tax installment payments, with original due dates or extended due dates falling on or after September 23, 2022 and before March 2, 2023 will now have a due date of March 2, 2023. This tax relief is applicable to affected businesses anywhere in Florida.

Additional information is available on the Tax Relief for Victims of Tax Relief for Victims of Hurricane Ian webpage on IRS.gov. Taxpayers outside Florida who require assistance with corporate tax filing may contact the Department's taxpayer services at (850) 488-6800 or GTAHurricaneHelp@floridarevenue.com.

"Hurricane Ian was an historically catastrophic storm, and the total impact is yet to be determined. The Department of Revenue is ready to assist business owners in the affected areas as they deal with the damages and begin to recover," said Director Zingale.

The Department has implemented the corporate income tax extension pursuant to subsection 213.055(2), F.S., which authorizes the Executive Director of the Department of Revenue to carry out certain actions during a declared state of emergency. Governor Ron DeSantis declared a state of emergency in response to the threat of Hurricane Ian (see Executive Orders 2022-218 and 2022-219). Following Governor DeSantis' request, President Joe Biden issued a Major Disaster Declaration for Hurricane Ian.

Taxpayers who have additional questions may call the Department's taxpayer services at (850) 488-6800 or send email to GTAHurricaneHelp@floridarevenue.com. Visit the Florida Corporate Income Tax webpage for more information on corporate income tax. To sign up for email updates from the Department of Revenue, visit floridarevenue.com/dor/subscribe.

###

About the Florida Department of Revenue: The Florida Department of Revenue administers the State of Florida's general tax, property tax oversight and child support programs. The Department's mission is to provide excellent and efficient service through the fair and consistent administration of Florida's tax and child support laws in order to simplify the process of compliance. To learn more about the Department of Revenue, visit floridarevenue.com.